After all, didn't Mark Hanna's boom get ground up while Roosevelt was strenuously grinding out history?

Now that the Cape Fear river has gotten rid of its big dose of oil, we might quote property along the wharf as a little easier.

We see that South Carolina's Jim Tillman has located in Texas. If that is not his finish, he might try Breathitt county, Ky.

The Lynchburg News says "Cleveland is no longer in the ring." The referee will please notify Mr. Bryan to take off his mittens.

An editor complains that somebody persistently carries off his Washington Post. How is an editor supposed to do his work when people mislay his tools?

By the way, if Roosevelt needs a job after next November, he might make a tour of the revolution gridirons of Central and South America and tell the folks down there how to be good.

We see a standing item going the rounds of the press where somebody "stepped against a red hot stove." If Colombia meanders in the direction of Uncle Sam's Panama zone, there might be another accident of the same sort.

The mathematical problem which Panama will soon have on its slate is how to divide that $10,000,000 of canal money with Colombia. Like as not when the Panamanian divisor is run through the dividend the the quotient will be 0.

Beyond the peradventure of a doubt there are no Bry'ny tears over Cleveland's letter saying he's not in it for the Democratic nomination for President next year. Mr. Bryan might stop long enough to take it into consideration that the mail facilities are good between his present stopping place and some admiring friend on this side.

There is a lively contest in South Carolina over the handsome silver cup which Andrew Jackson bequeathed to the bravest survivor of the Palmetto regiment in the Mexican war. As no decision as to who was the bravest could be possibly arrived at, the cup will go to the last survivor. These now number 14, and one of them is Wilmington's esteemed citizen, Col. John L. Cantwell. The Star hopes he will be the winner, which is to say, "may he live long and prosper."

THE VICE CRUSADE.

Thirty Indictments Returned Against Ten Defendants in the Superior Court.

LAW AND ORDER LEAGUE.

Best Local Talent Employed to Prosecute the Cases — Continuances Until the January Term—Ten Cases from Mayor's Court—Witnesses.

Brief mention was made in yesterday's paper of the arrest by the police of half a dozen individuals growing out of a revival of the effort on the part of the Law and Order League, organized in Wilmington some two years ago, to rid certain localities of the city of alleged resorts of vice. The magnitude of the effort became apparent in the Superior Court just before adjournment yesterday afternoon when the grand jury returned a batch of 30 indictments against ten keepers of houses of ill repute in the vicinity of Fourth and Castle and on MacRae street. These were in addition to those ten other cases sent over by the Mayor at noon.

Hon. Jno. D. Bellamy and Thos. W. Davis, Esq., have been retained to prosecute the cases and Mr. Bellamy stated in court yesterday afternoon when a continuance of the cases was suggested, that while he had no desire to oppress any one he would ask that capiases issue for the defendants and that they be brought into court and be required to give good and sufficient bonds for their appearance at the January term. He frankly said that he had been employed by the Law and Order League and that its purpose was to break up dens of vice in the central portions of the city; that while it was perhaps impossible to suppress them entirely they could be relegated to sections of the city where they would be less objectionable.

The bills of indictment charge "keeping a disorderly house" in several instances; "selling liquor without license" and "selling liquor on Sunday." A dozen witnesses appear on several of the papers, including prominent members of the Law and Order League and private parties who have been employed to quietly visit places in question and secure evidence Messrs. Herbert McClammy, Marsden Bellamy and other leading attorneys of the Wilmington bar, have been engaged to appear for defendants, and a plea was made yesterday that several of the number have now over $600 deposited in the aggregate as bonds from the Mayor's court and it would be oppressive to require them to give more. An understanding was reached by which it is understood that those who have already deposited large bonds will not be required to put up more money, but will execute the same bond to cover all cases.

All the defendants in the Mayor's court yesterday waived examination and gave $50 bond in each of two cases against them to appear in the Superior Court The grand jury subsequently found true bills in those and additional cases as follows:

Mamie Sheridan, two for keeping disorderly house and one for retailing.

Effie May, two for keeping disorderly house and one each for retailing and selling liquors on Sunday.

Kate Jenkins, two for keeping disorderly houses and one each for retailing and selling liquor without license.

Mattie Allen, one each for retailing and selling liquor on Sunday.

Cecil Livingston, two for keeping disorderly house and one for retailing.

Laura Keetor, two for disorderly house.

Lola Harriss, two for keeping disorderly house and one each for retailing and selling liquor on Sunday.

Mabel Carlton, two for disorderly house.

Trixie Johnson, two for disorderly house.

Gussie Grier, one for retailing.

Two bills against Madge Lambert were returned "not true" the defendant not having been identified.

In addition to the cases heard by the Mayor in the batch of ten referred to above there were before him also at noon yesterday Willie and Mabel Anderson, both white, who were each fined $30 for disorderly conduct and also bound over to Superior Court for keeping a disorderly house. In default of $50 bond and the payment of fines, they are locked up in the station house.

Chicago Lady Entertainers.

The Chicago Lady Entertainers delighted a large audience in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium last evening. The company is composed of four real artists, and their ability to entertain the most cultured audience was easily demonstrated in their appearance here. The programme opened with a quartette introducing the entire company in the "May Dance" (J. C. Macy.) That number was followed by a galaxy of other pleasant features, varied and highly entertaining. Miss Estelle M. Clark, the reader, and Miss Bessie M. Mercer, soloist, are spoken of by those who heard them as the star members of the party. The next number in the Star Course of entertainments at the Y. M. C. A. will probably be Richmond Pearson Hobson, who will appear some time in January.

Ran Into the Street Sweeper.

A street car ran into Alderman Sweeney's street sweeper early last night and partially wrecked it. One of the horses attached to the machine was crippled, and the sweeping for the night had to be dispensed with.

TWO FREIGHT TRAINS IN HEAD-ON COLLISION.

Smash-Up of Coast Line and Seaboard Engines Near Hilton Bridge Yesterday—No Serious Injury.

A head-on collision between an Atlantic Coast Line freight train arriving from the south and a Seaboard Air Line freight leaving the city over the same track occurred yesterday morning at 7:45 o'clock just this side of Hilton bridge to the north of the city. The Seaboard engine and two flat cars in the train were completely demolished, the Coast Line engine was partially wrecked and the conductors on both trains were thrown to the floor of their cabooses and more or less bruised and cut about their heads. The engine crews escaped by jumping.

Both railroad companies use the same tracks over the bridge and across the marshes to Navassa, four miles from the city. The Coast Line train had the right of way yesterday morning and had just crossed the bridge, running at a comparatively low rate of speed. The Seaboard train had just left the S. A. L. yards in this city and was going out of the yard limits, in an opposite direction and also at a rather low rate of speed. Either because the Seaboard engineer failed to wait at the post for signals or because the brakes when applied failed to hold the wheels on the frosty rails, the Seaboard train rushed around the rather sharp curve at that point and the two engines came together with a crash. One of the flat cars was doubled back in almost a perfect fold; another was torn up and several others were more or less broken up. The Seaboard engine, the samaller of the two, mounted the big Coast Line engine and was torn completely to pieces. But for the fact that the engineer and firemen of each reversed their engines and jumped, they would almost certainly have been killed. The Coast Line engine was pulling about 35 cars loaded with cotton. The Seaboard train was made up of about a dozen box and flat cars, several of which were empty. Engineer J. W. Holland, of the Coast Line engine, saw the inevitable collision just as he cleared the bridge and jumped with his fireman over the fence at the Clarendon Water Work's station. Engineer Chas. Richardson, of Roanoke, Va., who was on the Seaboard engine, saw the danger and also jumped with his firemen just in time to save themselves. Engineer Richardson was slightly injured by the jump and is now in the James Walker Memorial Hospital.

Conductor Skinner, of the Coast Line train, received a gash over the left eye by being thrown. His injuries were dressed by Dr. Pride J Thomas. The Seaboard conductor was not so badly injured.

The wreckage blocked the track for several hours and the Fayetteville train, which also goes over the same tracks, was unable to get by before 11 o'clock. It was due to leave at 9:20 A. M.

CITY VS. BRIDGET M'DONALD.

Supreme Court Hands Down Decision in Important Tax Suit—Schools.

[Special Star Telegram.]

RALEIGH, N. C., December 1.—City of Wilmington vs. Bridget McDonald was one of seven opinions handed down by the Supreme Court to-day. In it the lower court is affirmed. It involves back taxes amounting to $334.88. The opinion is by Judge Connor, who says the defendant's exception in the lower court was that the "court erred in rendering a judgment" is too general. He also says defendant's counsel relied on the bar of statute by limitations. It is a bar only when raised on answer, but it would seem this court has has held in Wilmington vs. Cronly that plea did not avail as to defendant. As no answer is filed and the court finds no error on the record, it affirms the judgment. Without deciding several questions argued, the court rules that tax assessments made by the city have the force and effect of judgment with power to sell. Argument was by L. V. Grady for defendant; W. J. Bellamy and ex-Judge Shepherd for the City of Wilmington.

The State Superintendent of Public Instruction makes apportionment of the first hundred thousand dollars to the public schools on the basis of fourteen cents and 7.36 hundredths cents per capita. New Hanover gets $1,151.93; Pender, $718.88; Brunswick, $661.06; Bladen, $935.74; Columbus, $1,198 48.

HOLLY SHELTER RAILROAD CO.

Suit to Vacate Its Charter Heard—Several Injunction Proceedings Brought.

Judge Brown in the Superior Court yesterday and again last night in chambers heard argument by counsel in the case of Attorney General Gilmer against the Holly Shelter Railroad Company in which it is sought to vacate the charter of the corporation on the ground that it is not a bona fide railroad and in several injunctions and cross-injunctions which have been brought in the now celebrated Pender county case. Judge Brown took the papers and said he would render his decision later. Judge Brown will not leave the city for a day or two yet.

The attorneys who appeared in the hearings yesterday were Hon. Jno. D Bellamy, Rountree & Carr and R. G. Grady for the Parsley and Newton interests and Messrs. Iredell Meares and J. T. Bland for the railroad company.

Scarlet Fever Fatal.

Of the many cases of scarlet fever in Wilmington during the past several months, none had proved fatal until yesterday. A little colored girl, Lillian A. Hill, five years old, died with the disease at No. 116 North Ninth street.

THE END OF COURT.

Continuance of the Terry Murder Case Left But Little on the Docket.

THE GRAND JURY'S REPORT.

Several Sentenced to Terms on the Roads. Not a True Bill in Fake Doctor's Case. Separate Bibles for the Races Urged—Other Proceedings.

New Hanover Superior Court adjourned sine die yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, after having been in session only two days of the one-week term allotted. The Terry murder case and those against the keepers of houses of ill repute, which developed during the term, having been continued, there was little else on the docket and practically everything was cleared up at the noon hour yesterday. In the early afternoon the grand jury, which made phenomenal dispatch of business, came into court, rendered its report and was discharged with thanks for its distinguished services. The report is published below.

The morning session was convened as usual at 10 o'clock and of the eighteen talesman ordered for the day, Sheriff Stedman returned the following: W. G. Sale, Levi McMillan, Jno. H. Beery, B. A. Merritt, Walter H. Holland, J. G. Barrentine, Jake L. Solomon, M. A. Jones, Jno. H. Rehder, Jno. J. Furlong and L. B. Pennington; and as not found, W. W. Blair, B. B. Rogers, Jno. R. Kenly, James A. Westbrook, R. W. Smith, B. L. Grant and James W. Mailly. The following were excused: Jno. H. Beery, W. G. Sale, Jno. J. Furlong and L. B. Pennington.

The following cases were disposed of during the day:

T. N. Thomas, carrying concealed weapons; pleaded guilty; fined $10 and costs.

Cornelius Wright, larceny; pleaded not guilty; verdict guilty, nine months on public roads.

Joe Taylor, colored, larceny of watch; pleaded guilty; 12 months on roads.

Henry Brown, assault and battery, pleaded guilty; 10 months on public roads.

Gertrude McCall, Annie Pollock, larceny; Gertrude McCall pleads guilty and Annie Pollock, not guilty, six months each in jail with leave to hire out.

Not a true bill was returned in the case of "Doctor" Talley, the negro healer from Cape Fear township, who was charged with practicing medicine without license.

Several divorce suits were heard and divorces were granted, just before adjournment of court.

THE GRAND JURY'S REPORT.

To the Hon. Geo. H. Brown, Judge Superior Court, New Hanover County, N C.

The grand jury beg to report that there was presented for its consideration 53 bills, of this number, 50 were found to be true bills and two not true bills.

The grand jury was delayed in its work in getting witnesses summoned prior to this term of court. We respectfully repeat the recommendation of the last grand jury that separate bibles be furnished for white and blacks sworn in the grand jury room.

The grand jury thanks the court for courtesies extended. Respectfully submited. F. H. FECHTIG, Foreman.

TO INVESTIGATE OIL LEAK.

Board of Fire Underwriters Sends a Communication to the Aldermen.

One of the important matters to come before the Board of Aldermen at its regular meeting Monday night will be arrangements for an official investigation of the recent leak of an oil tank at the Standard Oil Co's. plant in the northern section of the city. In addition to the petition of property owners the following from the Local Board of Underwriters will also be presented:

December 1st, 1903.

To the Honorable Mayor and Board of Aldermen of the City of Wilmington, N C.:

GENTLEMEN—At a meeting of the local Board of Fire Underwriters this morning, the secretary was instructed to address a communication to the Honorable Mayor and Board of Aldermen of Wilmington, N. WILMINGTON'S WONTED HOSPITALITY.

State Treasurer Lacy Enthusiastic Over His Entertainment Here by Carmen.

[Raleigh News and Observer.]

State Treasurer B. R. Lacy is enthusiastic in his praise of the splendid hospitality of the Car Men's Union of Wilmington. He was entertained by them on Thanksgiving Day, the "Car Men's Birthday," and addressed them together with representatives of other trades unions Thanksgiving night in the Y. M. C. A. Hall. Mr. Lacy was introduced to the audience by Representative Quinn, of the Car Men, and he spoke for about 35 minutes. Rev. Mr. Vipperman, of the Baptist Tabernacle in Wilmington, offered prayer.

The Wilmington Car Men tried themselves to make things pleasant for the State Treasurer. He was met on his arrival by a committee of eight and driven to the Orton Hotel, where people called to see him all day. It was almost a continuous reception. Then the Car Men treated him to an oyster roast at Wrightsville Beach, which Mr. Lacy says he enjoyed hugely. Altogether, he says it was a great day.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, DEC. 2.

LINE UP OF DEMOCRACY NEXT YEAR.

The discussion in Democrtic newspapers concerning the proposed "reorganization" of the Democratic party for the Presidential campaign next year, would indicate that many are convinced that the organization which claims to be Jeffersonian would not be recognized by the illustrious statesman if he met it in the duds in which it has been arrayed for some years passed.

The principles of the Democratic party are surely preserved somewhere in "ancient papyrus," so to speak, and the writing will sooner or later be resurrected from some crypt by some archæologist of the party. The question is whether the party has strayed away from its principles to such an extent that the spirit of the Sage of Monticello would have to ask: "In what questionable shape comest thou?"

In these portentuous times when it is necessary for the government of the Republic to get back to the landmark of the fathers, we must ask the question, "Who is to be the judge of the standard of Democracy?" The house has been divided against itself as we must know especially from the sound of its "fall," but surely there are enough of the faithful left to set the house in order again.

The STAR is optimistic enough, however, to believe that when the national convention meets next year there will be found enough men "free from the doting scruples that fetter onr free-born reason," to agree upon a platform that will get back to the old landmarks as near as possible. At most, we know that the platform will declare cagainst "entralization" and let us hope that it will cut out the paternalism and socialism excrescences.

Here is something very interesting from the New Orleans Picayuue:

Mr. Henry Loomis Nelson, a prominent political writer, has in the Boston Herald of the 25th inst. a well-considered article in which he claims with good show of reason that extreme Democracy like that of Mr. Bryan, and extreme Republicanism like that of Mr. Roosevelt, backed up by such men as Senators Lodge, Quay, Platt and others, both tend to centralization of the Federal power and to Government paternalism.

Mr. Bryan's populistic and socialistic doctrines would put all power in the hands of the Federal Government. The free coinage of money out of a depreciated metal; the limited issue of irredeemable government paper notes; the control of all railroads by the general Government, and the assumption of Federal authority over all trusts and corporations, are some of the ends which Bryanism proposes to accomplish. Here all power is to be used by the Central Government for the benefit of what he calls the common people.

On the Republican side the National Government is to have control of everything for the benefit of specially favored classes. Tariffs are made or unmade in order to enrich them, and all foreign treaties are to be framed in the same interests.

Thus there are two sorts of socialism or centralism. One is for the alleged benefit of the masses against the classes; the other is for the classes against the masses. Both are contrary to true Democracy, which is intended to secure to every individual the full benefit of such talents and and opportunities as he may possess, with no special privileges or favors to any. This is the only sort of equality that is possible in a state of society where men are manifestly unequal in physical and intellectual capacity. It is the equal right of each to do his best in the battle of life and to enjoy undisturbed the fruit of his proper exertions.

This is the true Democratic idea and either the Democrats must get back to it, or there will be a new party that will take up the doctrine which can be formulated in the terms: "Self-government as opposed to centralization; the right of individual effort as against governmental paternalism."

Mr. Nelson, the writer alluded to, expresses the belief that there is a very large body of citizens without regard to party, who are opposed to government centralism and paternalism; who regard with alarm the breaches of the fundamental law by the President; who are hostile to the lawlessness of of labor unions as well as of capitalists; who are enamored of individual liberty; who have faith in the great fundamental principles of law; who hold to the ancient faith in dignified character which would prevent a servant of the State from an attempt to evade the law in the protocol of a treaty, an application to an affair of honor of the practices of a sharp attorney who so draws a contract as to "beat the law."

The politics professed by parties today to a large extent disregard principle and foster policies that will secure office, power, patronage to some organization or group of individuals, and in any case, whatever laws may be enacted, they are to be shaped for the benefit of particular interests, and are to be administered by the same group or oligarchy that is supposed to represent the party.

There has always been a party of principle as opposed to a party of plunder, and there always will be so long as honesty, honor and justice remain among men. There have been many party revolutions in the past, and there will be others in the future.

COTTON PICKING BY MACHINERY.

The flying machine is now incubating for the winter, and the man who has invented a cotton picking machine has again bobbed up in the patch.

The news may be received with some credulity, but the Shrieveport, La., Times is authority for the announcement that Angus Campbell, of that city, after sixteen years of experiments in making a cotton picking machine, has succeeded in perfecting a machine that will pick seven bales of cotton a day where the fields yields a bale to the acre. This would mean that the machine would do the work of 40 men, and would make the cost of cotton picking forty times as cheap as by labor.

It is said that the machine is on a rather old model. Its wheels run in the furroughs, with the vehicle over the row of cotton, and the cotton plant is threshed in the body of the vehicle, all the open cotton being caught up by fingers or hooks. The plant is said to remain uninjured by this process, and but few of the leaves are torn off. A separator or cleaner attached to the machine afterwards removes these leaves and trash from the cotton.

If Mr. Campbell has really succeeded in making a machine that does what is claimed for it, North Carolina cotton growers, in order to keep up with the procession, will have to plant cotton on only the very best lands. Otherwise the planters of the Southwest will put them out of business by the cheapness of machine picking.

WILL MR. BRYAN BOLT?

We do not know whether to consider seriously the report that William J. Bryan is bent on having the Democratic platform next year to embody his principles or else abandon the party and contribute to its defeat by leading a movement that adheres to his policies. We rather think that judgment should be suspended until Mr. Bryan's true position is better known. He denounced Cleveland as a bolter for not standing by the free and unlimited coinage platform of the party, and surely he would not assume to take a step which he denied it was Cleveland's privilege to do.

The report which the STAR refers to here may be taken cum grano salis, but it is at least a bit of interesting reading matter at this time. For what is worth, therefore, we reproduce it as it comes from the Troy (N. Y.) Times. The story is as follows:

A dispatch from Chicago, carefully written and giving many indications of having come from some one with much inside knowlekge of what is going on in the Democratic party, at least in the Bryan wing of it, is to the effect that Mr. Bryan will be present at the next Democratic National Convention, and though not a candidate for the Presidential nomination, will lead the fight for his "principles" and will make a greater contest than he did in the Chicago convention of 1896. Then, if his side loses, it is alleged that he will be taken up by the Populist element and given a nomination, though possibly under a new party name. The story is given for what it is worth, but there is nothing inherently impossible in it. The programme accords precisely with what is believed by many to be Mr. Bryan's capacity and disposition to make trouble for all Democrats who do not acknowledge him to be infallible.

Raleigh News and Observer: Asheville, N. C., Nov. 30.—A desperate fight occurred yesterday afternoon shortly after 3 o'clock on Mountain street in the "Red Light" district of the city between "Bunk" Finley and Harvey Hensley, of Marion, and Bob Lee and a friend of Lee's. Lee shot five times, two of the shots taking effect in Finley's body. The first bullet struck the man in the left breast just above the heart, and ranging downward came out near the back. The second shot entered the right side and came out at the left. Lee was cut twice but was not seriously hurt. Ida Smathers, who keeps a disorderly house on Mountain street, went to one of the lower windows and was watching the men quarrel. One of the shots fired at Finley went wild, crashed through the window and entered the woman's breast, inflicting, it is alleged, a fatal wound. To-night both the Smathers woman and Finley are still alive, but little hope is entertained for their recovery.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—— It need not excite any astonishment that Germany and other European countries recognize or will recognize the independence of Panama. That is their logical game. These European countries have been long in the grab game. They are pasmasters in the science. England may be tardy because Colombia owes her much money and Panama might not agree to help Colombia pay it. But Germany is swift in the business because she has a great state in Brazil, and would like to see the German colony, 500,000 strong and a dominating commercial and industrial influence, follow Panama's example.—Augusta Chronicle.

—— General Reyes now proposes that Colombia grant the canal concessions to the United States and charge nothing for it. He says he is authorized by President Morroquin to make this proposition. He also asserts that all Colombia is afire with zeal for the building of the canal by the United States. We think the position assumed by the administration — a position that means the dismembership of a sister republic by the power of the United States—is an outrage. We think it is not simply robbery, but the robbery of a nation whose rights we have guaranteed. We think that the Senate should refuse to treat with the government of Panama or to recognize that goverument in any way until it shall have established its independence unprotected by the United States.—Jacksonville Times-Union.

SERVANTS IN ECUADOR.

The Traveler is Forced to Hire Many to Serve Him.

If you were living in Ecuador and wished to hire a servant you could hardly get one by himself or herself, but would be compelled to take up with a drove of them, probably far outnumbering your own family. For example, with a cook you would have to receive her husband and children, and perhaps also her father and mother, into your house to bed and board, and each would bring along all his or her portable property, consisting mainly of domestic pets, such as pigs, chickens, rabbits, dogs and other "live stock." The husband may have some trade which he follows during the day, but at mealtimes and when night comes he returns to the bosom of his family and yours. It would be considered downright inhumanity to refuse them food and shelter, and not a servant in Ecuador would work for so mean a master or mistress. The children of your cook may be utilized for light services, such as running errands, weeeding the garden and tending the baby, but the numerous brood is apt to be "light fingered" and certain to be dirty and probably diseased. There is no help for it, however, because "el costumbre" has decreed that for every servant you hire you must expect at least a dozen extra mouths to feed.

Nor is this the worst of it. Occasionally the cook's relatives from another village come to pay her a visit of a fortnight or two—lasting as long as you will tolerate it—men, women and children, bringing more dogs, pigs, chickens, etc., to be housed and fed. Fortunately they are not accustomed to "downy beds of ease," or sumptuous living, but consider themselves in clover if plentifully supplied with beans, corn meal and potato soup, and will sleep contentedly on the stones of the patio or the straw of the stable. The danger is that some of the stranger hangers on may not be as honest as the cook herself is supposed to be, and cases are known where thieves and even murderers thus gained admission to the inside of the casa with disastrous results.—Philadelphia Record.

Increased His Range of Vision.

Justice Sir John Armour of the supreme court of Canada was a member of the Alaskan boundary commission. At one of the sessions he was greatly annoyed by the remarks of members on both sides who indulged in speculation on future conditions. Sir John favored dealing with present issues. During the discussion a squeaking noise was heard by the wranglers. Looking around, they saw Mr. Armour coolly screwing up the rotary chair on which he had been seated, evidently taking pleasure in the noise which he was producing. When the chair was raised to such a height that it would make its occupant ridiculous as well as conspicuous Sir John addressed himself to the members of the commission and said:

"Gentlemen, I am not so farseeing as you are, but with your indulgence I have raised my point of view."

Their Hair Tells a Story.

In Japan the women arrange their hair in a manner so ingenious that a person can tell at once whether any woman he sees is a maiden who desires to get married or a widow who is inconsolable or one who is willing to be consoled if the proper suitor presents himself.

Young girls arrange their hair in front in the form of a fan or butterfly and adorn it with silver or colored ornaments, widows who are looking for second husbands fasten the hair at the back of the head by means of tortoise shell pins, and widows who are resolved to remain forever faithful to their departed spouses cut the hair short and wear no ornaments in it.

An Evasive Answer.

A New England deacon sold a pair of oxen to a brother farmer, who inquired before purchasing if they were "breachy." "They've never bothered me," answered the deacon. The purchase was concluded, but in a few days the purchaser had suffered considerable damage to his fences from these same oxen. Indignant, he confronted the deacon. "I asked you if they were 'breachy,'" he exclaimed, "and you said they'd never bothered you." "Well," answered the deacon, "I never allow that kind of thing to bother me."

A Sure Cure.

A father returning from business complained of having suffered all day with the toothache and had his hand to the side of his face, as though he was suffering a great deal, at the dinner table. Fill your mouth full of water and go sit on the stove till it boils."—Brooklyn Life.

A Reliable Medicine.

A REPORTER OF THE STAR INTERVIEWS OUR LEADING DRUGGIST, MR. ROBT. R. BELLAMY.

The Interview of Interest to Every Person in Wilmington.

So many patent medicines and advertised cures are now offered to the public that our readers should be glad to know the opinion of a man who has spent years in handling them, and profit by his advice.

Said Mr. Bellamy, "After having sold drugs and all kinds and makes of medicines for so many years, naturally we have learned something about them, their value, and power to cure.

There is no one medicine that will cure everything, but this I do know, that if the people of Wilmington only realized the wonderful curative and strength creating power of Vinol, I would not have clerks enough in my store to put up the orders for it."

Continued Mr. Bellamy, "You see Vinol is not a patent medicine, and it actually does contain every one of the fifty odd medicinal curatives taken from fresh cods' livers, with other vitalizing ingredients. It contains no poisonous drugs or nauseating oil, and you know just what you are taking. Vinol has wonderful life-giving properties; it tones up and invigorates every organ of the body to do its work, and we know it will make rich, red blood, build up the depleted system and create strength.

"When I tell you that we have never in our store such a valuable remedy as Vinol for the following ailments and that if it fails to accomplish what we say it will, we will refund your money, it will show our faith in its wonderful curative and vitalizing powers.

"It will build up run down, tired, debilitated people. It will make the weak and sickly strong and well. It will make flesh for thin people. It will increase the appetite. It will cure nervousness, irritability and sleeplessness. It will cure stomach troubles, dyspepsia and indigestion. It will make rich, red blood. It will make weak, puny, ailing children strong and robust. It is the greatest strengthener and body builder in the world for old people. It is a great strengthener for weak women. It is a boon to nursing mothers. It will positively cure chronic coughs and colds. It cures bronchitis. It makes weak lungs strong and is of untold value in consumption and all wasting diseases. For the convalescent it has no equal as a strength maker.

"I cannot make a stronger statement, and can only ask such people in Wilmington to try Vinol on my guarantee." Robert R. Bellamy.

COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—The cotton market opened strong at an advance of twelve to nineteen points on sensationally stronger cables, more bullish predictions regarding the probable showing of the census bureau report which is expected at noon to-morrow which will show the amount of cotton ginned to date and estimate the probable amount remaining to be ginned, firm advices from the Southern spot markets and a belief that there was still a considerable short interest in the market likely to cover before the bureau reports. Before the opening, sentiment was very bullish and excited brokers were predicting twelve cents for cotton before the day was over. On the initial advance, however, which was attended by great activity and excitement, there was heavy realizing by bull operators who were apparently reducing their lines, possibly with the intention of getting into a better position for again supporting prices in case of any decline, and this was heavy enough to ease prices off a few points. After noon fluctuations were very irregular. First, realizing would bring about a reaction, then the market would be rallied again, selling within a point or two of the previous high level. The local bull leader bought aggressively all the afternoon, taking large amounts of March, while there was also buying by New Orleans interests and during the entire session the market showed a good firm undertone. The close was down several points from the best, but steady at a net advance of sixteen to twenty-nine points. Sales were about a million bales. Receipts for the day were full and the estimates for to-morrow's movement had a full average, but speculation is centered on the probable showing of the census report and other factors have little immediate influence, particularly in view of the continued firmness of spot markets and reports of increased activity among buyers for New England spinners.

SOME COSTLY SAWS.

Slate Cutters That Have Points Studded With Diamonds.

Probably the most expensive saws in use anywhere in the world are those in the factories in Pennsylvania where various articles are manufactured of slate. In one of these factories there are 300 horizontal saws, twelve feet in length, each of which is furnished with seventy-five cutting diamonds, each saw being worth $5,000. The slate land which furnishes the material for these costly saws to work upon was once so little valued that the tract upon which the famous Chapman quarry in Pennsylvania is situated was sold for a pint of whisky. Its subsequent owners have taken millions of dollars from the land.

The most valuable slate deposits in the world are found in the central and eastern parts of Pennsylvania. In the neighborhood of the Pennsylvania quarries there are houses whose walls are entirely of slate. The blocks of which they are made are smoothly sawed, and are certainly most substantial. When slate is blasted in the quarries the rough slabs are taken to the shanties of the "splitters." The stone forms naturally into layers, and the "splitter," following the grain or "ribbon" with his large chisel, separates the blocks into strips. Then these strips are passed through a trimming machine, where, by the blows of a heavy knife, they are cut into rectangular "shingles." Then they are piled up into "squares," ready to be used for roofing purposes.

When slate is cut up for use in other ways the procedure differs. The huge horizontal saw, with its scores of diamonds, in the factory is called into play; it is lowered on one of the blocks of slate by a ratchet at the rate of a quarter of an inch a minute. The saw would cut through iron or steel at the same rate. The workmen play a stream of water on the slate to keep it cool and wash the dust from the cut. After the sawing the block is planed by being moved back and forth by machinery under a firmly fixed chisel. It is afterward polished, much as marble and granite are. The value of the slate quarries runs into millions.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Arbor Day In Australia.

The state schools in South Australia have a pretty annual festival, called Arbor day, when all the scholars and teachers assemble in the open space before their schoolhouse and plant a young tree, which it is the special duty of the children to tend throughout the year. The rest of the day is devoted to sports and merrymaking. The trees are provided by the government and forwarded gratis to every state schoolmaster in the colony. Rapidly growing varieties are usually chosen, such as the graceful pepper tree, with its delicate tassels of greenish white flowers and coral pink berries, or the Moreton bay fig, whose glossy green leaves will resist almost any heat. In a surprisingly short time the dusty playground will be surrounded with a fringe of trees, forming a welcome relief for weary eyes.—E. M. Naill in Longman's.

Watchful Stone Slingers.

When the wheat is growing in the fields near the banks of the Nile, Egypt, great quantities of birds of every kind pounce down upon the tender grain and would soon destroy the whole crop were it not for the watchful stone slingers. These are men who stand all day perched on little platforms here and there throughout the fields with slings and pebbles, shooting any bird that comes within reach. The work of a stone slinger is a regular profession in Egypt, though a poorly paid one, it being thought that simply standing still all day is not very hard labor. It is only for a few weeks twice a year that the stone slinger can find employment.

Real Leadership.

"Did you say that I had dropped out of public life?" asked the man who had met with political defeat.

"I believe that form of expression was used," replied the interviewer.

"Young man, you have made a mistake. I have not dropped. I have ascended to a high plane of economic thought which the plodding masses have not yet reached. But the separation is only temporary. All I need to do is to sit here and fish awhile and let the public catch up to me."—Washington Star.

Expectation of Life.

A French mathematician gives the following rule for calculating the age to which the average human being may reasonably expect to attain. The rule, however, is not applicable to children under twelve, and it will not work with persons over eighty. Subtract your present age in years from eighty-six, divide the remainder by two, and the result will give you about the same number of years as the tables of mortality used by the life insurance companies.

The Introduction of Tea.

The first cup of tea drunk in England is believed to have been taken at Arlington House, which stood on the site now occupied by Buckingham palace. The drinker was Lord Arlington, and that cup of tea was a luxury indeed, the price of tea per pound then being £3, which is equal to about £8 of our present currency. It was many years before tea became a popular beverage, but it was taken into favor at once by the wealthier classes in the community.—London Globe.

Relatively Poor.

"Alas," said the unhappy woman, "and we were once considered wealthy!"

"But, my dear," said her husband soothingly, "we have as much money as ever."

"Oh, yes, I know, but there are so many who have a lot more that nobody pays any attention to us any longer!"—Brooklyn Life.

Sighed For His Song.

A friend of Edward MacDowell attended a recital given by a mediocre teacher's pupils, and when he met the American composer he remarked, "I heard one of the pupils, a little girl of eight, play your 'To a Wild Rose.'" The composer sighed dejectedly. "I suppose," MacDowell remarked, "that she pulled it up by the roots."

Mrs. Anna D. Moore.

"No More Aches and Pains."

No. 826 Perdido Street,
NEW ORLEANS, LA., March 27, 1903.

For over nine years I had been troubled with leucorrhoea. The discharge was yellowish at times but after the menstrual period it would become reddish, acrid and excoriating. This exhausted my system. I was continually tired while my appetite was poor, my digestion very bad and my sleep restful and feverish.

Wine of Cardui was the one remedy which helped me in my distress. I soon found that it relieved the pain and imbued me with new strength and after the use of 22 bottles I was well. No more discharge. No more aches and pains and oh, what relief, only those who have had my experience can appreciate the value of such a fine medicine as Wine of Cardui.

Anna D. Moore
VICE-PRESIDENT, UNITED DAUGHTERS' INDUSTRIAL CLUB.

WINE of CARDUI

Does not this letter convince the most skeptical sufferer that Wine of Cardui will bring her health? It is difficult to imagine a case where there are more discouraging features than this before Mrs. Moore began taking Wine of Cardui. Leucorrhœa is an inflammation of the vagina. It is really decay in the vital organs of womanhood. This inflammation often drives women into the direst stages of nervous excitement. At the menstrual period the continual itching is accompanied by the utmost agony. The life of the woman who lets this trouble run on as Mrs. Moore did is one of misery. But Mrs. Moore did not know what medicine to take to cure it. When she had Wine of Cardui brought to her attention she took it and continued the treatment until she was cured. The case was a chronic one and it took presistent effort to bring a permanent cure.

This cure can be secured by any woman who takes Wine of Cardui. Mrs. Moore tried everything else and continued to suffer. She tried Wine of Cardui and was cured. You can treat your case successfully in your own home and nobody need know anything about it. Secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui today and begin the treatment.

A TIMELY TOOT.

Now in the wind rippled mead the lamp
of the shimmering tulip
Blazes away, don't you know, and causes
the dreamer to hustle,
Till in his joy he exclaims as loud as the shriek of the shanghai:
"Get out your moth balls at once and pack them away in your ulster.

"Swiftly pack into the past the muff, the
golosh and the pancake;
Put the prime sausage away and shed the spectacular 'porous,'
For the old spring is on deck with cough drops agleam in her ringlets,
And the sharp pikra's on tap, and likewise the bock and the bitters."

This to the wise man's enough to open the business optic
Till in his vision he sees the things that beginger the poet,
Who with his harplet of biz gleans quickly the shekels of silver
Ere the verse market's o'erstocked with rondeau, sestina and sonnet.

NEW YORK'S COTTON MARKET

Still Greater Excitement and Activity. Further Advance in Prices of Futures Sales a Million Bales

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—Still greater excitement and activity marked the opening of to-day's cotton market. First prices showed an advance of twelve to nineteen points, with December selling at 11.58; January at 11.65; March at 11.76; May at 11.75 and July 11.73, on sensationally higher cables, less favorable weather, bullish accounts from spot markets and increased confidence that the census bureau report to-morrow showing the amount of cotton ginned to November 15th and estimating the amount remaining to be ginned, will make a very bullish showing. Private advices from Liverpool indicated that large short interests were covering there and the buying here seems to come largely from Wall street shorts, although there was also a perfect flow of orders from outside sources. Naturally the bulls took profits heavily at the advance, but their offerings were absorbed with amazing promptness. After sagging back a point or two, a fresh influx of outside buying orders, the execution of stop loss orders and continued covering started prices upward again, with the market inside of the first half hour net seventeen to twenty-two points higher. March, which seemed especially strong, was selling around 11.80. All through the session the market continued active, and while there were brief reactionary intervals owing to waves of realizing, generally speaking prices ruled very firm on a continuation of covering and further bull support. Buying orders were received from New Orleans. At the highest January sold at 11.75, March at 11.87, May at 11.86 and July at 11.87. Fluctuations became very irregular, the market at the closing being steady, sixteen to twenty-six points net higher. Sales were estimated at 1,000,000 bales.

MISSIONARY STEAMER SUNK.

Capsized on the Congo River—An American Missionary and Twenty-three Natives Were Drowned.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NASHVILLE, TENN., Dec. 1.—A cablegram received here to-day announces the death of H. C. Staymenter, an American missionary, and the drowning of twenty-three of the native crew by the capsizing of a boat on the Congo river in Central Africa. The boat was the Lapsley, and was the missionary craft of the Southern Presbyterian Church. On it were H. C. Staymenter and Motte Martin, of Alexandria, Va., who left the United States on the first of August and were en route as missionaries to the field in the interior of the Congo Free State. The boat capsized between Leopoldville and Luebo, and Staymenter went down with twenty-three of the crew. Martin was saved.

RICHMOND, VA., Dec. 1.—The Lapsley was built and launched in this city about two years ago, and immediately shipped to Africa. The Rev. Robt. P. Kerr, now of Baltimore, had charge of the christening exercises, and a large number of Presbyterian ministers witnessed the ceremonies incident to the launching.

The Lapsley was neatly fitted up and contained all the conveniences of a modern ship. The boat was given the name of Samuel N. Lapsley, because Mr. Lapsley had devoted his life to missionary work in Africa and other places.

DOWIE A BANKRUPT.

Receiver Appointed for the Property of Zionist Leader by the U. S. Court.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHICAGO, Dec. 1.—Judge Kohlsaat, in the United States District Court to-night, appointed Fred M. Blount and Albert D. Currier receivers in bankruptcy for the property of John Alexander Dowie, at Zion City, on petition of three creditors, alleging an indebtedness of $1,169. The petitioners allege that Dowie is insolvent and has made preferential payments.

Last Wednesday Dowie's first confession of weakness was made at a rally in the Tabernacle at Zion City. "A lot of you people have cash in your pockets," Dowie said to his followers. "Dig down and get it out. It is God's and we need it in His work. You are cowards if you don't give it up. Deposit it."

Dowie talked in the same strain for more than an hour, tears glistening on his cheeks as he told of the financial straits in which the Zion industries found themselves.

Instead of frightening any into depositing, this appeal sent a long line of people to the bank on Friday, when they lined up at the paying teller's window, drawing out their money.

Less than $3,000 was deposited in the bank on Friday while the amount withdrawn was twice as much. Late in the afternoon A. W. Graham, of Waukegan, tried to withdraw his account of $300 and was told he would have to give thirty days' notice before he could get his money.

TARIFF DEBATE IN THE HOUSE.

The Present Procedure in Congress Ridiculed by De Armond of Missouri.

ADJOURNED UNTIL FRIDAY.

Committee Appointments Discussed—The Steel Trust—The Republican Policy. Freight Rates on Steel Products for Export.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—The House, after being in session for a little more than an hour to-day adjourned until Friday. The time was almost wholly consumed in a discussion which was largely a tariff debate. When Mr. Payne had offered the motion to adjourn over Mr. Williams, the minority leader, suggested that they would like about thirty minutes on a side for debate, whereupon Mr. Payne asked the consent of the House. The Speaker announcing the request said:

"The gentleman from New York, at the suggestion of the gentleman from Mississippi asks unanimous consent that there be thirty minutes talk on a side."

In terming it a "talk" instead of debate, the Speaker evoked laughter from both sides of the House.

Mr. DeArmond, of Missouri, amused the House for ten minutes by likening the present procedure of Congress to the Alphonse, Gaston and Leon scheme of politeness. "On the question of adjournment of the extra session, the Alphonse of the Senate is saying to the Gaston of the House, 'after you my dear Gaston' and the Gaston of the House is saying to the Alphonse of the Senate, 'after you my dear Alphonse,' and Leon, standing off at a distance, is saying 'how magnificent; how magnanimous; how strenuous.' (Democratic laughter.) But aside he is giving this expression, 'I wish I had four years of my own in that dear White House at Washington, D. C.'

"This spectacle has to be gone through with because no more important matters are to be disposed of."

Turning his attention to the subject of committee appointments Mr. DeArmond said facetiously, that he was under the impression that the gentlemen on the Republican side had not been treating the Speaker just right in not making plain to him their desires for important chairmanships.

Touching minority committee appointments, Mr. DeArmond suggested trouble ahead unless the just claims for proper numerical representation was allowed. He counselled the Speaker not to yield to the tempter on this point, and his "brethren" on the Democratic side "to pray." He concluded with the prediction: "We will see the Senate Alphonse bowing to the House Gaston, and the Presidential Leon lending his personal misgivings, his doubts and apprehensions as to what may happen."

Mr. Williams, of Mississippi, taking up the question of tariff turned to the steel schedules and asked if the Ways and Means Committee could not agree to a reduction on steel and iron products. He said he had been informed four railroads had agreed to reduce the freight rates on steel products for export 33⅓ per cent., and said further he had learned that rates on all products in interstate commerce from Chicago east had been raised. Mr. Williams said that under the guise of a sacred duty—"stand pat"—the opposition was furnishing a shelter whereby the trust can extort from the American people while selling to the foreigner cheaper than the foreigner can manufacture.

Mr. Caines, Democrat, of Tennessee, addressed himself to the "stand pat" policy of the Republicans.

Mr. Hemenway, Republican, of Indiana, defended the House on the charge of the minority that time was being wasted.

Mr. Hepburn, of Iowa, replying to statements made by Mr. Williams, declared that the country never was in better condition and that this was due to the Republican policy of protection.

Replying to Mr. Williams' charge that a shelter was being furnished the trusts, Mr. Hepburn gave figures in connection with the steel and iron industry, comparing prevailing prices with those of the past, and saying that the Republican policy had brought about the good conditions cited. He said he could see why the farmers of Iowa and Kansas spurned the gentle assurances of the gentleman from Mississippi (Mr. Williams) that the Democrats were their friends.

Mr. Grosvenor, of Ohio, the last speaker, replied to the charges of dereliction made by the Democrats, saying that he believed the House stood higher in the estimation of the people than ever.

The Senate.

After receiving a number of bills, resolutions and petitions, and after spending some time in executive session, the Senate adjourned until Friday.

As usual, Mr. Cullum called up the Cuban reciprocity bill, but as no one manifested a desire to address the Senate upon it the bill went over.

BOLL WEEVIL CONVENTION.

Special Session of the Louisiana Legislature to be Called to Devise Ways to Keep the Pest Out of the State.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 1.—A special session of the Louisiana Legislature will be held during the month of December to pass legislation which it is hoped will keep the boll weevil out of Louisiana.

Governor Heard made the announcement of his intention to the boll weevil convention here to-day. He said he was fully alive to the dangers of the threatened invasion of the weevil and that he had been assured that the State would have the hearty co-operation of the Agricultural Department at Washington to keep the pest out of the State.

The boll weevil convention listened to day to addresses by a number of planters, merchants and oil men and also heard Vice President Miller of the Audubon Association, on the relation of birds to the boll weevil. The convention decided to ask for the enforcement of laws for the preservation of the birds of the State, as an aid in the destruction of the weevil.

The convention determined on a permanent organization to be known as the Louisiana Boll Weevil Association, with Charles Schuler as president, five vice presidents and a secretary. The headquarters of the association will be with the agricultural department at Paton Rouge.

CHICAGO'S BOY MURDERERS.

One of Their Wounded Victims Died Yesterday—Trials to Begin This Week. The Insanity Plea.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHICAGO, Dec. 1.—Detective Joseph Driscoll, who was shot in the fight in Indiana with the three car barn bandits, died at the Mercy Hospital to-day.

The death of Detective Driscoll will be charged to Peter Neidermeier. In a confession to the police, Neidermeier admitted that he shot Driscoll as the latter sprang upon the railroad tracks near the dugout.

Gustave Marx, one of the car barn robbers, will be placed on trial in the Criminal Court this week. The others will probably go over until the next term of court. The next term begins Monday, so that the delay will be slight. Each murder case will have to be tried separately. Marx probably will be used as a witness against the other defendants.

An attorney who has been retained to defend Roski stated definitely today that Roski's plea would be insanity. This insanity plea will be met by the State. According to the police each defendant was examined by experts several days and pronounced sane.

The sweetheart of one of the bandits has been on exhibition in a dime museum for several days. To-day Mayor Harrison wrote to the proprietor and told him that in the interest of decent citizenship the exhibition should cease, all the more so as the death of Detective Driscoll added to the offence.

Numerous Depredations Committed by Five Men in a Pennsylvania Town.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

ALLENTOWN, PA., Dec. 1.—The town of Emaus, near here, was last night visited by a gang of five outlaws, who terrorized the residents, committed numerous depredations and finally escaped to the Lehigh mountains. The men are believed to be the same who last week robbed the postoffice and cracked three safes at Emaus, and who on Sunday night entered and robbed the Pennsylvania railroad station at Phoenixville.

Last night the highwaymen entered Emaus, shouting and discharging revolvers. They first went to Kremser's barber shop and after being shaved left without paying. They visited several saloons and ordered drinks for which they refused to pay. Samuel Rehm and a woman and a little girl were held up. Rehm was robbed of his money and the woman's purse was taken.

A posse of citizens was finally organized but the outlaws evaded capture.

TUG BOAT SUNK.

Three Lives Were Lost and One Man Was Badly Hurt.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—Three lives were lost and one man was badly hurt to-day by a collision between the tugs Idlewild and Hercules, off Ellis Island. Hans Peterson, Wm. Lasker and a man whose name has not been learned were drowned. John Storberg, a boatman, was cut about the head and his left leg broken. He is in a serious condition and unable to give any details as to how the accident occurred. The Hercules is owned by the American Towboat Company, of Baltimore.

The Idlewild, which had eleven men aboard, was nearly cut in two and sank almost immediately. All save three of those on board were picked up by the Hercules. The Hercules was not seriously injured.

COAL MINE EXPLOSION.

Resulted in the Death of Two Men and the Injury of Eight.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

BIRMINGHAM, ALA., Nov. 21.—An explosion late this afternoon at Flat Top mine, worked by State convicts, about twenty-five miles from this city, resulted in the death of two men and the injury of eight. One of the injured may die. Mine Inspector Culverhouse says the explosion probably was due to the carelessness of the powder men, who were placing shots for the night shift in the storehouse. The fact that the powder was stored in a worked-out heading, averted a more dreadful catastrophe.

EXECUTION AT TRENTON, N. C.

Young White Man Hanged for Murder. Made No Statement.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Dec. 1.—Cyrus Dixon, a young white man, was hanged at Trenton, N. C., to-day for the murder in March, 1901, of Godfrey Webber. The trap was sprung at 1.10 P. M. and death resulted fifteen minutes after the drop fell.

Dixon made no statement beyond what he had already said; to the effect that he did not shoot Godfrey, but furnished the gun for the killing. About forty witnessed the execution.

The first snow of the season fell at Starkville, Miss., yesterday and attained a depth of four inches. Heavy snow is also reported at other points in North Mississippi.

COLOMBIA'S ENVOY IS IN WASHINGTON

His Visit to State Department Will be Fruitless and His Mission a Failure.

HIS COURSE IS UNDECIDED.

United States Ready to Extend Its Good Offices to Effect a Settlement Between Colombia and Panama. Not Otherwise Interested.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—Dr. Herran, the Colombian charge d'affaires, called at the State Department to-day for the first time in many weeks for the purpose, he said, of informing Secretary Hay of General Rafael Reyes' arrival here, of the object of his mission, and to pay a friendly call upon the secretary. Dr. Herran made a long visit and although at its close he said there was no announcement to make and that no date for the reception of General Reyes had been arranged, it can be stated that he was advised of the exact attitude which the Washington government will assume toward the special envoy.

If General Reyes is pleased to meet the State Department officials on the ground fixed by them and for the purpose which they have named—the arrangement of peace terms between Colombia and the new republic of Panama—he will be cordially received. Otherwise, his visit to the department will be fruitless and his mission to Washington a failure.

"The United States stands ready to extend its good offices to effect a settlement between Colombia and Panama, but with this exception it is not interested nor can it consider any other proposal from Colombia regarding the isthmus," said a high official of the administration to-day.

General Reyes has been advised of this by Dr. Herran and it remains for him to say what will be his course here in view of this development.

COLON, Dec. 1.—The steamer City of Washington, from New York, having on board the canal treaty, arrived at Colon early to-day. Senor Esprilla, the minister of the foreign office of the republic of Panama, arrived here from Panama last night, and the treaty was turned over to him. He then boarded the train for Panama, taking the treaty with him.

PANAMA, Dec. 1.—It is considered probable here that the canal treaty will not be signed until to-morrow.

AMERICAN JEWS.

No Longer Cross the Russian Frontier Without Special Permit.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

BERLIN, Dec. 1.—American Jews are no longer permitted to cross the Russian frontier without a special permit in each case from M. VonPlehwe, the Russian interior minister. Most Americans travel to Russia by way of Germany. The practice until the last two weeks was for the Russian consul general here to vise the Jews' passports upon receiving a statement of their purpose to visit Russia and that their stay there was to be temporary.

GOLD FROM ABROAD.

Large Shipments Engaged for New York and San Francisco.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—Lazard Freres are informed that the London, Paris and American Bank, limited, of San Francisco, has engaged 1,000,000 yen (about $500,000) Japanese gold for shipment from Japan to San Francisco.

The International Banking Corporation is importing 500,000 yen from Japan.

The National City Bank reports an additional gold engagement of $100,000 in London.

WARM WIRELETS.

The Western Union telegraph messengers at Richmond, Va., struck yesterday against a reduction of wages. The company is filling their places with negroes.

The Board of Directors of the Board of Trade of New York voted unanimously to consolidate with the Maritime Exchange. The two bodies will be amalgimated about January 1.

D. W. West, formerly manager of the Western Union Telegraph office in New Orleans and one of the best electricians in the South, died in Mobile last night of pneumonia.

The United States battleship Missouri was placed in commission at the plant of the Newport News Shipbuilding and Drydock Company, yesterday. The exercises were very simple.

T. W. Wright, superintendent of the People's cotton factory, Montgomery, Ala., was arrested yesterday charged with violating the child labor law. Wright was released on $5,000 bail.

The largest shipment of apples which ever left New York is due to arrive at Bremen to-day on the North German Lloyd steamer Main, which sailed from New York November 19th. It consists of 32,939 barrels and 1,540 boxes.

At the weekly reception in St. Petersburg of the members of the diplomatic corps Saturday, Foreign Minister Lamsdorff spoke optimistically of the crisis in the Far East and expressed the opinion that the Russo-Japanese negotiations would result in a pacific settlement.

George Foster Peabody, the well known New York philanthropist, accompanied by a party, including Dr. Charles C. Hall, president of Union Theological Seminary, and fifteen gentlemen, spent yesterday at Tuskegee Institute, Booker T. Washington's school for negro youths, visiting all departments.

Four deaths and twenty-five new cases is the typhoid fever record at Butler, Pa. Six new physicians from other places were added to the local staff. The worst feature of the day's development was the appearance of dyphtheria in three of the twenty-two children who have fever at St. Paul's Orphans Home.

After one of the hardest fought contests seen in Boston in recent years, Marvin Hart, of Louisville, was given the decision over "Kid" Carter, of Brooklyn in a 15-round bout at the Criterion last night. The fight was stopped by Referee Buckley within one minute of the time limit and when Carter was nearly out.

The battleships Illinois, Alabama, Kearsarge and Massachusetts sailed yesterday on the annual Winter cruise to the West Indies. Their coal bunkers have been replenished and a full supply of ammunition taken on board. The force of marines of the warships has been increased by 500 men.

FAR EASTERN CONTROVERSY.

Japan and Russia Assisted by France and Great Britain, on Verge of Settlement of the Trouble.

By Cable to the Morning Star

PARIS, Dec. 1.—The Associated Press learns that Japan and Russia are on the verge of a settlement of the Far Eastern controversy which promises to dissipate the war cloud that has been hanging over both countries. This settlement will be the result of negotiations which have been in progress for some time past and which were assisted by the friendly representations of France to Russia and of Great Britain to Japan. The two nations have practically agreed upon the basis of a treaty, the signing of which can only be prevented by some unexpected development.

The basis of this forthcoming agreement follows:

"Russia will accept the two agreements entered into by Japan and Korea, dated 1896 and 1898, respectively, under which Japan secured various rights in Korea, including the maintenance of a garrison at Seoul. In exchange for the concession Japan will accept Russia's treaty with China respecting Manchuria.

It is believed—though this cannot be stated as positive—that Japan and Russia will reiterate their support of the principles of the open door and the integrity of China and Korea.

Both Great Britain and France have exercised their influence in behalf of an amicable settlement. Diplomats therefore give considerable credit to the respective allies of the two disputants for the moderation which has prevailed in the Russian and Japanese councils.

Information has been received to the effect that Japan is constructing at Seoul barracks for 1,000 men, though she now maintains only 500 in the Korean capital. This is accepted as an indication that Japan contemplates the strengthening of her garrison at Seoul.

YOKOHAMA, Dec. 1.—A Japanese medical student was arrested to-day on suspicion of an attempt to assassinate the Marquis Ito. He carried a dagger concealed under his kimino when arrested at the Marquis' villa Miso. It is believed this attempt on the statesman's life was the outcome of recent suggestions in the sensational newspapers of Japan that a ministerial assassination would be a patriotic action tending to produce a more warlike policy on the part of the government.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—The State Department may be the means of suggesting a method of settlement of the Manchurian question satisfactorily to all parties by submitting the question as to when and how Russia shall evacuate Manchuria, if at all, to The Hague tribunal. Mr. Wu, when Chinese minister to Washington, was an ardent advocate of the arbitration theory, but beyond securing the moral support of the State Department was unable to accomplish much. Coming as it now does from Russian sources to this country, the plan to submit the vexed evacuation question to The Hague tribunal has gained strength.

TRINITY COLLEGE TRUSTEES.

Met in Special Session at Durham Last Night to Consider Dr. Bassett's Article—Nothing Given Out.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

RALEIGH, N. C., Dec. 1.—The trustees of Trinity College met in special session at the college at Durham to-night, to consider the article on the race problem written by Dr. Bassett, one of the faculty of the college. It was supposed that the resignation of Dr. Bassett would be offered to the board, but it was stated that the action of the board on the matter could not be foretold. A wire from the college at a late hour to-night states that the board is still in executive session and that nothing has yet been given out. It is stated, also, that no action of the board is expected to-night. There are thirty-six trustees, ten of whom are absent. Many ministers of the Methodist church, returning from the conference just closed, express the belief that whatever the decision of the board may be, the Methodists of the State will acquiesce in it, without a murmur.

Declined to Accept Resignation.

RALEIGH, N. C., Dec. 1.—At 2:30 this morning the Board of Trustees of Trinity College declined to accept Professor Bassett's resignation, which was tendered.
